

THE WEST END THE PROPER PLACE

Tax Assessor Colson Says the People and Country are Prosperous.

THE NEW TOWN OF TYLER

Is Forging Along Nicely and is the Largest and Healthiest Town of its Age in the State—Extension of the Jacksonville and Southwestern.

"I was born and reared in the West End of Alachua county," remarked County Tax Assessor W. W. Colson, who has just returned from that section. Tuesday, "but never in all my life have I seen such progress and prosperity as is going on there now. This prosperity is not confined to one district or section, but is general from Newberry west to the Suwannee river. The extension of the Jacksonville and Southwestern railroad from Newberry west seems to have put new life in the country and on every hand if you not see the thrifty farm, well cultivated, you may look upon extensive naval stores farms and immense saw mills. You may quote me as saying that the old West End and her people are coming to the front and will yet show Florida a thing or two in the line of progress."

Mr. Colson states that the Jacksonville and Southwestern railroad will construct a branch line from Trenton to points south in Levy county, presumably to the Cummer Lumber Co.'s camp. The cutting of the right-of-way has already begun, and it is safe to say that this extension will be pushed as rapidly as possible, as is all the other work of this road west of Newberry.

Mr. Colson states that the town of Tyler, where the immense mills and turpentine retorts of the Tyler Lumber Company are located, is the largest and most progressive town in the State for its age. Established a little more than a year ago, it has grown to have a population of about 500, and the buildings are all up-to-date, notwithstanding they are constructed of wood. "The merchants there are doing a fine business, and altogether money seems plentiful," he said.

The new plant of the Tyler Lumber Company is one of the largest and most modern in this section of Florida. It has a tremendous capacity, cutting both cypress and yellow pine, and has a large resource of both. The Tyler Company also operates the new retort system of making turpentine, and altogether the firm employs from 250 to 300 hands. They have an almost inexhaustible acreage of timber, and the enterprise is destined to prove a big thing for the people of the immediate vicinity.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a God-send to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee by all druggists. Price 50c.
